FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

OHIO INSPECTOR GENERAL INVESTIGATES WRONGFUL ACTIONS BY FORMER OHIO STATE DENTAL BOARD EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
Columbus, Ohio, November 3, 2016

The inspector general has issued a report of investigation today, initiated after the Ohio State Dental Board expressed concerns about the actions of the board's former executive director.

The investigation found former Executive Director Lili Reitz shared with a former board member of the Ohio State Dental Board, the information from a confidential complaint.

The allegations in the confidential complaint were reported to the Ohio State Dental Board in an anonymous voicemail message left at the dental board's offices. Reitz had a board investigator determine the identity of the anonymous caller. Reitz then shared the information in the confidential complaint and the identity of the caller with the former board member.

The Ohio Inspector General's investigation was conducted jointly with the U.S. Federal Bureau of Investigation, U.S. Attorney's Office, Internal Revenue Service and the Ohio Attorney General's Office.

The report of investigation has been provided to the Columbus City Attorney for consideration.
